Additional Notes: Hi there, I live in a 3 bedroom and one of our roommates is moving out. We are both professionals in our mid 30's who are pretty laid back and view our home as a quiet, safe haven. I could go on and on but would really prefer to converse with potential roommates one on one. We are LGBT friendly (we are both gay). The location can't be

Additional Notes:

My current roommate has bought a place NYC and is moving out. I am a 38 year old guy, work in PR in an office in midtown and am very easy to get along with. Only necessities are respecting the common areas and keeping the noise down on weeknights after midnight. Tend to keep it pretty low key but you are welcome and encouraged to have company every now and then since it is a great place to entertain. I travel occasionally for work and am out of town many weekends. I've lived here for 9 years and love this apartment, you won't find a better deal on size and location - Message me with interest.
