Additional Notes: This well kept brownstone built in 1846 has a remarkable and quite beautiful country feel. A large open area behind the building filled with plants and trees gives a serene park like view. I have a small terrier who is calm and lovable. I am not a tv watcher and am often out during the evening. The space is kept clean and has a open loft style feel.

Additional Notes: Hi there, I live in a 3 bedroom and one of our roommates is moving out. We are both professionals in our mid 30's who are pretty laid back and view our home as a quiet, safe haven. I could go on and on but would really prefer to converse with potential roommates one on one. We are LGBT friendly (we are both gay). Additional Notes:

My current roommate has bought a place NYC and is moving out. I am a 38 year old guy, work in PR in an office in midtown and am very easy to get along with. Only necessities are respecting the common areas and keeping the noise down on weeknights after midnight. Tend to keep it pretty low key but you are welcome and encouraged to have company every now and then since it is a great place to entertain. I travel occasionally for work and am out of town many weekends. I've lived here for 9 years and love this apartment, you won't find a better deal on size and location - Message me with interest.
