although i am a smoker and have pets. i only smoke in one room at the other end of the apartment. this is because my roommate does not like smoke and i do not smoke around my cats. i have two cats and i do not think it would be a good idea to introduce a new pet at this time. i'm "an old queen" so to speak and this is why i am looking for somebody older or at least around my age. i have nothing against youngsters, but i don't want any partying and it is understandable that younger people like to party a lot. no problem w/ roommates having guests but they are as i am responsible for who they bring into the home. The benefits are that it's almost like having your own little apartment.Large furnished room for $600 avail NOW or both rooms at $1000

I'm a 28yo gay male. I like to keep the apartment clean and organized, I'm not anal about it, but would like the common areas kept clean. I'm a musician, but I only do "musician things" at appropriate hours and never while my roommate is home. I work during week days when everyone's gone, & I work downtown a couple days a week and on the weekends, so I'm gone all day then. My previous roommate said I'm a 'surprisingly quite roommate.' Responsible, really into health and well being, and I'm seeking someone of a similar nature. I was really drawn to this apartment because of it's recent renovations, modern amenities and large closet spaces. I have a lot of clothing and possessions, and this was the only place that could

Additional Notes:

I am posting this to actually replace myself in the 2-bedroom. Renters would share with my very cool roommate/ex. Nice new concierge building with a friendly staff in a safe, gentrifying neighborhood. 15 minute walk from Columbia's campus. Terrific soul food and bakeries in the neighborhood! 2 and 3 train literally steps from the front door! Grocery store, dry cleaning, CVS, and banks on ground floor. apartment's square footage = 950 s/f
